Tirumala Parveta Utsavam Held with Grandeur

The traditional Parveta Utsavam, conducted after the Navaratri Brahmotsavams of Lord Sri Venkateswara in Tirumala, was held with great splendour on Wednesday. Usually, this utsavam is performed on the day after Makar Sankranti (Kanuma). This year, it was also conducted following the Navaratri Brahmotsavams, owing to the adhika masam, as per temple tradition.

Due to heavy rains, after the morning rituals, Lord Malayappa Swamy was brought to the Vibhavotsava Mandapam in a ceremonial palanquin (Tiruchchi). After the rituals, offerings and harati, traditional honours were extended to Ubhayadarulu, Tallapaka descendants and Matham representatives. Later, the Lord proceeded from the Parveta Mandapam to the Mahadwaram, received the traditional staff from the Hathiranji Matham, and returned to the temple sanctum, marking the conclusion of the utsavam.

Navaratri Brahmotsavams Conclude

The nine-day Navaratri Brahmotsavams of Lord Venkateswara concluded on Tuesday night with the Bangaru Tiruchchi Utsavam. On this occasion, Sri Devi and Bhu Devi sameta Malayappa Swamy appeared in the Sri Rama Pattabhisheka alankaram and blessed devotees on the Mada streets. Earlier, a Pallaki Utsavam was held from 3 AM to 6 AM.
