Ran in saree without shoes... Kavita's dream remains unfulfilled

Completes 1600 metres in 8:57 in Home Guard test, but fails in high jump

- Completed 1600 metres in 8 minutes 57 seconds
- Ran without shoes in saree
- Ahead of the 10-minute deadline
- Failed to clear high jump despite three attempts

Ranchi (Jharkhand): Kavita Kumari from Ramgarh district created a big impression by running 1600 metres in just 8:57 minutes without shoes and in a saree during the Home Guard recruitment test. However, her dream of getting the job remained unfulfilled as she failed to clear the high jump even after three attempts. Kavita, a mother of two, had hoped this job would secure a better future for her children.

Gambhir's Plan: Three Players to Fill Hardik's Role

Team India looking at new combination in Hardik Pandya's absence

- Hardik remains out due to fitness issues
- Coach Gambhir preparing three players as alternatives
- Aim to strengthen middle order, bowling and finishing roles
- Recent series show positive signs

New Delhi: Hardik Pandya has been a key all-rounder for Team India, strengthening the middle order and contributing crucial overs, especially in the death overs. However, due to ongoing fitness issues, he has been out of the side. With Hardik unavailable, head coach Gautam Gambhir is reportedly preparing not just one, but three players to fill his role. Recent series suggest that this experiment could be working well. Who are these three players, what roles are they playing, and how is Gambhir's plan shaping up? Here's a look.
