Mumbai Indians to undergo major changes

Ahead of IPL 2027, MI remove three coaching staff members

Mumbai: Ahead of the 2027 IPL, Mumbai Indians (MI) are set for a major overhaul in their coaching setup. After recently appointing a new head coach, the franchise has now officially removed three key members from its coaching staff – bowling coaches Lasith Malinga, Paras Mhambrey and fielding coach Carl Hopkinson.

The franchise announced the decision through an official post on X, thanking the three for their contributions to the team.

MI stated that it values their services and wishes them the very best for their future endeavours.

Hardik Pandya likely to get captaincy in that franchise

Ahead of IPL 2027 trade, six franchises in race for Hardik; former cricketer Ravichandran Ashwin makes interesting prediction

New Delhi: Ahead of the IPL 2027 trade, Hardik Pandya's name has become one of the hottest topics in cricket circles. The all-rounder, currently with Mumbai Indians, is reportedly likely to switch franchises next season, with as many as six teams said to be interested in acquiring him.

It is also learnt that Hardik is expecting captaincy wherever he goes. Former cricketer Ravichandran Ashwin has now shared his views on the matter, saying that despite the interest from multiple franchises, there is 'one team' whece Hardik has the captain. What did Ashwin say? Which franchise is it? Read on...

Kajal, Neelam win silver

Indian women wrestlers just miss gold at World Wrestling Championships

New Delhi: India's women wrestlers Kajal Dhochak and Neelam Sarohi settled for silver medals at the World Wrestling Championships, coming agonisingly close to creating history. Both delivered outstanding performances to reach the finals, but finished with silver.

This is the first time that two Indian women wrestlers have reached the finals and won silver medals in the same edition of the championships. Kajal and Neelam also became the first Indian wrestlers to win silver in this prestigious tournament after Anshu Maliik (2021).

Molineux hits jackpot

UP Warriorz buy Sophie Molineux for ₹1.10 crore in WPL mini auction

New Delhi: Australian all-rounder Sophie Molineux, who played a key role in Australia's T20 World Cup triumph this year, struck a jackpot at the Women's Premier League (WPL) mini auction. UP Warriorz bought her for ₹1.10 crore on Wednesday.

Molineux, a spin-bowling all-rounder, is likely to be named the captain of the franchise, which is said to be the reason behind the hefty price. Warriorz also brought in Australia's Grace Harris (₹30 lakh) and Indian players Asha Shobhana (₹30 lakh).

Only fair-skinned heroines get chances in South: Radhika Apte

Actress opens up about why she reduced films in South industry

Mumbai: Actress Radhika Apte, known for her roles in 'Rakta Charitra', 'Kabali' and several other films, has revealed why she has largely stayed away from the South film industry in recent years.

She said it is not just about lack of opportunities, but certain practices she observed in the industry did not align with her values.

Speaking during the promotions of her upcoming series Akka, which is set to stream on October 30, Radhika shared her views on heroine selection, language barriers and other challenges she faced.

'Ramayana' creating buzz in Pakistan too

Grand celebrations by Hindu community in Karachi

Mumbai: Nitesh Tiwari's much-awaited pan-India mythological film 'Ramayana' is creating huge excitement beyond India too. The film, starring Ranbir Kapoor, Sai Pallavi and Yash, is generating strong buzz in Pakistan as well.

Members of the Hindu community in Karachi organised special celebrations to express their enthusiasm for the film. The high-budget epic is proving that the story of Ramayana continues to inspire audiences across borders.
