Free Coaching to Help Youth Crack Competitive Exams

Hyderabad, October 31 (Vadha): Revenue Minister Ponguleti Srinivas Reddy has announced that 15,000 government jobs will be filled in Telangana soon. He also said that a free online coaching program named 'PSR Yuvanestham' will be launched for unemployed youth under the PSR Charitable Trust to help them achieve better results in competitive exams. The Minister said that already 1 lakh candidates have registered for the program.

He explained that the main objective of PSR Yuvanestham is to provide quality training and encourage unemployed youth to secure government jobs. The training will be conducted in association with RC Exams, and candidates from all parts of the state can join through online mode. The Minister confirmed that training will be provided for one year, regardless of the number of applicants.

He said that private coaching centres charge nearly ₹1 lakh per candidate for such training, and an additional ₹14,000 to ₹30,000 is spent on books and study material. Considering the financial difficulties faced by many unemployed youth, PSR Yuvanestham will provide free online training along with books and study material. Recalling the 2016 Khammam program, the Minister said that 462 out of 2,300 trained various government jobs.
