King Kohli Roars on Kiwi Soil

Team India star batter Virat Kohli is once again gearing up to chase records. The five-match ODI series between India and New Zealand will begin on November 4. Kohli and Rohit Sharma will both be in action in this series. The two senior players are continuing their journey with the goal of the 2027 ODI World Cup. Kohli has a chance to score big and achieve several personal milestones, including five world records and another five key records in this series.

Big Blow to New Zealand Ahead of ODI Series

Hosts New Zealand have suffered a major setback ahead of the ODI series against India. Star players Mark Chapman and Rachin Ravindra have been ruled out of the entire series due to injuries, the New Zealand Cricket Board confirmed. It said both players are still in the recovery phase and will need more time to regain full fitness. Hence, the two have been excluded from the series, the board said.
